

REPUBLIC OF LITHUANIA
LAW
ON THE LEGAL STATUS OF ALIENS

29 April 2004 No. IX-2206

Vilnius

CHAPTER ONE
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1. Purpose and Scope of the Law

1. This Law shall establish entry and exit, temporary or permanent residence, granting of asylum, integration and naturalisation procedure as well as the procedure for appealing decisions on the legal status of aliens and regulate other issues relating to the legal status of aliens in the Republic of Lithuania.

2. The provisions of this Law have been harmonised with the provisions of the EU legal acts indicated in the annex to this Law.

3. The Law shall not apply to foreign nationals who enjoy the privileges and immunities under international treaties and other legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania.

4. The provisions of other laws of the Republic of Lithuania shall apply with respect to legal relations regulated by this Law to the extent they are not subject to regulation by this Law.

Article 2. Definitions

As used in this Law:

1. Manifestly unfounded asylum application means an application by an alien for granting asylum in the Republic of Lithuania where there is clearly no substance to the applicant's claim to fear persecution in the country of origin or the claim is based on deliberate deception or is an abuse of asylum procedures and it is clear that for the above-mentioned reasons it meets none of the substantive criteria established under this Law for granting asylum in the Republic of Lithuania.

2. Travel document of a stateless person means a document issued in accordance with the provisions of 1954 Convention relating to the Status of Stateless Persons to a stateless person not considered as a national by any foreign state who is lawfully staying in the Republic of Lithuania, granting the right to depart from and return to the Republic of Lithuania for the period of validity of the document.

3. Residence permit for a national of an EC Member State means a document issued to a national of an EU Member State allowing him and his family member to reside in the Republic of Lithuania.

4. Family members of a national of an EU Member State means the person's spouse or his/her unmarried partner in stable relationship, children and adopted children under 21 years of age, including the children and adopted children under 21 years of age of the spouse or of the unmarried partner in stable relationship, the dependent relatives according to direct ascending line of the national of the EU Member State, his/her spouse or unmarried partner.

5. National of an EU Member State means an alien having the nationality of one of the European Union Member States.

6. Marriage of convenience means a marriage concluded between a national of the Republic of Lithuania or an alien legally resident in the Republic of Lithuania and an alien who is not a national of an EU Member State with the sole aim of obtaining for the alien a residence permit or authority to reside in the Republic of Lithuania and not seeking to create other legal consequences of marriage prescribed by the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania.

7. Return to a foreign country means transfer of an alien to his country of origin or a foreign country to which he has the right to depart, according to the decision agreed with that country according to the procedure established by legal acts;

8. Expulsion from the Republic of Lithuania means a compulsory transportation or removal of an alien from the territory of the Republic of Lithuania in accordance with the procedure established by legal acts.

9. Obliging to depart from the Republic of Lithuania means a decision taken in the manner prescribed by legal acts obliging an alien to depart voluntarily within the specified time period from the territory of the Republic of Lithuania.

10. Travel document means the passport of a foreign national or a travel document equivalent to it, intended for travelling to a foreign country and recognised in the Republic of Lithuania.

11. Country of origin means the state of nationality of the alien or, where the nationality of the alien may not be established or if the alien is a stateless person, the state where he has his permanent place of residence.

12. Temporary territorial refuge means the right granted to an alien according to the procedure established by this Law to stay in the Republic of Lithuania pending the examination of the asylum application.

13. Work permit in the Republic of Lithuania means a document granting an alien the right to work in the Republic of Lithuania for a period specified therein.

14. Temporary residence permit in the Republic of Lithuania means a document granting an alien the right for a temporary residence in Lithuania for a period specified therein.

15. Permanent residence permit in the Republic of Lithuania means a document granting an alien the right for residence in the Republic of Lithuania for a period of unlimited duration.

16. Unaccompanied minor alien means an alien below the age of 18 years who arrives on the territory of the Republic of Lithuania unaccompanied by parents or any other adult responsible for him by law or who is left unaccompanied by any of the above-mentioned persons after he has entered the territory of the Republic of Lithuania.

17. Refugee's travel document means travel document issued to the refugee in accordance with the provisions of 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees, granting the refugee the right to travel outside and return to the territory of the Republic of Lithuania for the period of validity of the document.

18. Refugee means an alien who has been granted the status of a refugee admitted as such in the Republic of Lithuania in the manner established by this Law.

19. Examination of an asylum application as to substance means investigation for the purpose of establishing whether or not the applicant should be accorded the status of refugee or subsidiary protection and whether or not there are grounds for refusing to grant the status of refugee or subsidiary protection.

20. Asylum applicant means an alien who has lodged an asylum application according to the procedure established by this Law.

21. Temporary accommodation of an asylum applicant means accommodation of the asylum applicant in an appropriate place without restricting his freedom of movement.

22. Family members of an asylum applicant means the spouse of the asylum applicant or the person who has concluded with him/her partnership agreement or an agreement equivalent to it, the children of the couple or of one of them (adopted children irrespective of whether they have been adopted as defined under the laws of the Republic of Lithuania) below the age of 18 years, on condition that they are unmarried as well as the father, mother or guardian of the minor asylum applicant, in so far as the family already existed in the country of origin and during the examination of the asylum application the family members are present in the same Member State.

23. Asylum in the Republic of Lithuania means the granting of the status of refugee, subsidiary protection or temporary protection to an alien on the grounds and following the procedure established by this Law.

24. Safe country of origin means the alien's country of origin in which, on account of the legal situation, the application of the law and the general political circumstances, it can be safely assumed that neither persecution on the grounds of race, religion, nationality, belonging to a certain social group or due to political convictions nor inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment or violation of the fundamental human rights are being practised.

25. Safe third country means a state which is not the alien's country of origin but is a state party to 1951 Convention relating to the Status of Refugees and/or 1967 Protocol relating to Refugee Status as well as 1950 European Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms and/or 1966 International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, implementing the provisions of the above-mentioned instruments and providing an effective possibility under national laws to apply for and be granted asylum according to the established procedure.

26. Family members means the spouse or the person who has concluded partnership agreement or an agreement equivalent to it, in so far as the family already existed in the country of origin, the children of the couple or of one of them (adopted children irrespective of whether they have been adopted as defined under the laws of the Republic of Lithuania) below the age of 18 years, on condition that they are unmarried and dependent as well as relatives according to direct ascending line who have been dependent for at least one year and unable to make use of the support of other family members residing in a foreign country.

27. Family reunification means the entry into and residence in the Republic of Lithuania by family members of an alien who is not a national of the European Union residing lawfully in the Republic of Lithuania in order to preserve the family unit, whether the family relationship arose before or after the alien's entry.

28. Authorised representative means a person who, under the laws of the state of nationality or permanent residence of a minor alien, is responsible for the minor during his stay in the territory of the Republic of Lithuania.

29. Alien's passport means a document issued to a foreign national having the right to reside in the Republic of Lithuania but unable for objective reasons to obtain travel documents from his country of origin, granting the right to depart from and return to the Republic of Lithuania for the period of validity of the document.

30. Alien's registration certificate means a document certifying the status of the asylum applicant or, in the cases where the identity of the asylum applicant has been established in the manner laid down by the Minister of the Interior, his identity and his right to temporary refuge in the territory of the Republic of Lithuania.

31. Alien's detention means temporary accommodation of an alien in the Aliens Registration Centre, where the alien's freedom of movement is restricted on the grounds and for the period specified by this Law.

32. Alien means any person other than a national of the Republic of Lithuania irrespective of whether he is a foreign national or a stateless person.

33. Visa means authorisation in the form of a sticker affixed on the alien's travel document or decision entitling the holder to cross the state border.

Article 3. Rights and Duties of Aliens in the Republic of Lithuania

1. In the Republic of Lithuania aliens shall enjoy the rights and freedoms provided by the Constitution of the Republic of Lithuania, international agreements, laws of the Republic of Lithuania and legal acts of the European Union.

Having performed the actions specified in paragraph 1 of this Article a public servant authorised by the state institution or agency to which the asylum application has been submitted shall forthwith transmit to the Migration Department via electronic communications facilities the asylum application or the record thereof, if the application was not submitted in writing, copies of the collected asylum applicant's documents and travelling tickets and the record of questioning, whereas the taken fingerprints shall be transmitted to the institution authorised by the Minister of the Interior.

4. An institution authorised by the Minister of the Interior shall ensure protection of the refugee's fingerprint data.

5. Actions listed in paragraphs 1 and 3 of this Article shall be performed within 24 hours from the moment of filing of the application for asylum.

Article 70. Exemption from Liability for Illegal Entry and Stay in Republic of Lithuania

Aliens who have illegally entered into the territory of the Republic of Lithuania from a country where their life or freedom was threatened shall be exempt from liability for illegal entry into and stay in the Republic of Lithuania, provided they present themselves without delay to competent institutions or agencies of the Republic of Lithuania and render exhaustive explanation of the reasons of their illegal entry into or stay in the Republic of Lithuania.

Article 71. Rights and Duties of an Asylum Applicant in the Republic of Lithuania while his Asylum Application is being Examined

1. During the processing of an asylum applicant's application for asylum in the Republic of Lithuania the applicant shall have the following rights:

- 1) to be accommodated at the Foreigners' Registration Centre or Refugee Reception Centre and to use the services provided by them;
- 2) to manage and have notarised documents relating to the processing of the application for asylum;
- 3) to make use of legal assistance guaranteed by the state;
- 4) to receive compensation for the use of means of public transport where the use is linked to the processing of the application for asylum;
- 5) to make use of the interpreter's services free of charge;
- 6) to receive free immediate medical aid and social services at the Foreigners' Registration Centre or Refugee Reception Centre;
- 7) to receive a monthly monetary allowance in the manner laid down by the Minister of Social Security;
- 8) to apply to and meet representatives of the Office of the UNHCR;
- 9) other rights that are guaranteed under international treaties, laws and other legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania.

2. Asylum applicants who are minors shall have the right to study at schools of general education and vocational schools.

3. Duties of an asylum applicant:

- 1) to observe the requirements of the Constitution, laws and other legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania;
- 2) to fulfil the duties prescribed for the asylum applicant by the decisions of the Migration Department and the court;
- 3) to allow the performance of health screening;
- 4) during the processing of the asylum application to submit all the available documents and realistic full explanation of the motives of the application for asylum, the asylum applicant's personality as well as the circumstances of his entry and stay in the Republic of Lithuania;
- 5) to declare to the Foreigners' Registration Centre, Refugee Reception Centre or territorial police agency in writing in free format the resources and assets owned in the Republic of Lithuania within three days from the granting of temporary territorial asylum and the resources received pending the examination of the application for asylum in the Republic of Lithuania within one day from the receipt thereof.

4. State funds of the Republic of Lithuania shall be allocated for implementing the rights of the asylum applicants specified in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article; resources of international organisations, EU structural funds, resources of humanitarian assistance funds established by natural and legal persons of the Republic of Lithuania may also be used to the extent the asylum applicant is unable to guarantee them by the resources and property subject to declaration.

5. If it transpires that the asylum applicant had sufficient means for implementing the rights established in paragraph 1 of this Article at the time when these basic needs were being covered for him, he must refund the related expenses of the state.

SECTION TWO
EU MEMBER STATES RESPONSIBLE FOR DETERMINING THE STATE
RESPONSIBLE FOR EXAMINING AN ASYLUM APPLICATION

Article 72. Making a Decision on Determining the State Responsible for Examining an Asylum Application

1. Having examined the documents and evidence submitted to it, the Migration Department shall make a decision regarding the determination of the state responsible for examining the asylum application within 48 hours from the moment of lodging of the asylum application.

2. If an EU Member State so requests and if the asylum applicant so desires, the Republic of Lithuania may, on humanitarian grounds, agree to examine the asylum applicant's application even though it is not responsible for examining the application for asylum.

3. Upon determining that the Republic of Lithuania is responsible for examining the asylum application, the application shall be examined as to substance.

Article 73. Actions Connected with Determination of the State Responsible for Examining the Asylum Application and Transfer of an Asylum Applicant to the EU Member State

1. The Migration Department shall carry out an examination with a view to determining the state responsible for examining the asylum application. While carrying out the examination the Migration Department shall cooperate with the competent institutions of the EU Member States, as necessary provide them with the necessary information.

2. Upon taking a decision determining that the EU Member State is responsible for the examination of the asylum application, the asylum applicant's asylum application shall not be examined as to substance, the asylum applicant shall be granted temporary territorial asylum, in the case specified in Article 78 of this Law the asylum applicant shall be issued an alien registration certificate and according to the provisions of Article 79 of this Law shall be provided with accommodation in the Republic of Lithuania for the period for which he has been granted temporary territorial asylum. Such asylum applicant shall be granted temporary territorial asylum pending his transfer to an EU Member State responsible for examining his application for asylum.

3. Having taken a decision that the responsibility for the examination of the asylum applications rests with an EU Member State, the Migration Department shall cooperate with the competent institutions of this State with a view to transferring to it the asylum applicant.

Article 74. Taking a Decision on the Transfer of the Asylum Applicant to an EU Member State

1. Having received agreement of the EU Member State responsible for the examination of the asylum application to admit the asylum applicant, the Migration Department shall take a decision regarding the transfer of the asylum applicant to that Member State of the EU.

2. The decision referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be implemented by the institution authorised by the Minister of the Interior.

Article 75. Issue of Travel Document to an Asylum Applicant who is being Transferred to an EU Member State

1. An asylum applicant who is being transferred to an EU Member State responsible for examining his asylum application shall be issued a laissez-passer for one journey to an EU Member State.

2. The decision on the issue of a laissez-passer shall be taken by the Migration Department.

SECTION THREE

PROCEDURE FOR GRANTING ASYLUM IN THE REPUBLIC OF LITHUANIA

Article 76. Admission of an Asylum Applicant into the Territory of the Republic of Lithuania and Granting him Temporary Territorial Asylum

1. Having examined the documents and evidence submitted to it and determined that no EU Member State is responsible for examining the asylum application and there are no reasons indicated in Article 77 of this Law, the Migration Department shall take decisions in respect of granting (refusal to grant) temporary territorial asylum to an asylum applicant and provision of the asylum applicant with accommodation in the Republic of Lithuania pending the examination of his application as to substance and the taking of final decision.

2. Temporary territorial asylum shall also be granted to the asylum applicant who has been refouled from an European Union Member State to the Republic of Lithuania where the Republic of Lithuania is responsible for examining the asylum application.

3. The decision indicated in paragraph 1 of this Article shall be taken within 48 hours from the moment of lodging of the asylum application or from the moment of the asylum applicant's transfer to the Republic of Lithuania from any of the EU Member States. Extension of the deadline for 24 hours shall be possible where determination of the reasons indicated in paragraph 2 of Article 77 of this Law is sought.

4. By decision of the Migration Department the period of temporary territorial asylum shall be extended in case of failure, due to objective reasons, to transfer the asylum applicant to any European Union Member State within the set time period. Such a decision shall be taken within 48 hours from the moment when it transpires that that the asylum applicant has not been transferred to any European Union Member State. The asylum application of such an asylum applicant shall be examined as to substance in the manner set by this Law.

Article 77. Reasons for Refusing an Asylum Applicant Entry into the Territory of the Republic of Lithuania and Temporary Territorial Asylum

1. If an asylum applicant comes from a safe third country, by decision of the Migration Department he shall be refused temporary territorial asylum and his asylum application shall not be examined as to substance. Such an asylum applicant shall be obliged to depart from the Republic of Lithuania to a safe third country, he shall be expelled or re-fouled to it.

2. By decision of the Migration Department an asylum applicant shall be refused refugee status and subsidiary protection and shall also be refused temporary territorial asylum should it transpire after having examined his asylum application as to substance that he has come from a safe country of origin or submitted a manifestly unfounded asylum application. Such an asylum applicant shall be obliged to depart from the Republic of Lithuania or shall be expelled from it.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall not apply to an unaccompanied minor asylum applicant. Paragraph 1 of this Article shall also be not applicable where an EU Member State responsible for examining an asylum application has been determined.

Article 78. Issue of Alien's Registration Certificate

1. The Migration Department shall within 48 hours issue the asylum applicant who has been granted temporary territorial asylum with an alien's registration certificate.

2. The alien's registration certificate shall be issued to an asylum applicant irrespective of his age.

Article 79. Accommodation of the Asylum Applicant in the Republic of Lithuania

1. The Migration Department shall take a decision on the accommodation of the asylum applicant, except in cases where the asylum applicant has been detained or a measure alternative to detention has been imposed on him according to the procedure established by the laws of the Republic of Lithuania.

2. Having legally entered the Republic of Lithuania, an asylum applicant who has been granted temporary territorial asylum on the decision of the Migration Department shall be provided with accommodation at the Aliens' Registration Centre. On the decision of the Migration Department, such an asylum applicant may be permitted to settle in the place of residence of his choice, if the asylum applicant so desires.

3. Unaccompanied minor asylum applicant shall be provided with accommodation at the Refugee Reception Centre according to the procedure set by the Minister of the Interior and Minister of Social Security and Labour, unless this is objected to by his temporary guardian (curator) or other lawful representative.

4. The Foreigners' Registration Centre is an agency intended for keeping the aliens detained on the grounds specified in this Law and for accommodating the asylum applicants, carrying out investigation as regards personal identity of aliens detained or accommodated at the Centre, the circumstances of their entry into the Republic of Lithuania, managing record-keeping of aliens, carrying out expulsion of aliens from the Republic of Lithuania. The Foreigners' Registration Centre shall be set up, re-organised and liquidated by the Minister of the Interior.

5. The Refugee Reception Centre is a budgetary agency providing social services, intended for accommodating aliens who have been granted asylum in the Republic of Lithuania and unaccompanied minor aliens as well as for implementing social integration of the aliens who have been granted asylum. The Refugee Reception Centre shall be set up, re-organised and liquidated by the Minister of Social Security and Labour.

Article 80. Examination of the Asylum Applicant's Application for Asylum as to Substance

The application for asylum shall be examined as to substance by the Migration Department, conducting investigation with the aim of establishing whether or not the asylum applicant meets the requirements set in Articles 86 and 87 of this Law and whether or not there are reasons specified in Article 89 of this Law.

Article 81. Time Limits for Examining Asylum Applications as to Substance

1. An asylum application must be examined as to substance within 3 months from the date of taking of the decision by the Migration Department on the granting of temporary territorial asylum or on the extension of temporary territorial asylum in the cases specified in paragraph 4 of Article 77 of this Law.

2. The deadline for examining an asylum application as to substance may be extended by decision of the Migration Department where objective reasons preclude examination of the asylum application by the set deadline, but the time period of examination of the application as to substance shall not exceed 6 months from the date of taking by the Migration Department of the decision on the granting of temporary territorial asylum or on the extension of temporary territorial asylum in cases specified in paragraph 4 of Article 76 of this Law.

3. The time limits for examining an asylum application as to substance shall not apply where the asylum application is examined as to substance according to the procedure set in paragraph 2 of Article 77 of this Law. Should it be established that the asylum application is manifestly unfounded it must be examined within 48 hours. The deadline may be extended but for no longer than 7 days.

Article 82. Questioning Asylum Applicants and Notifying them of the Decisions

1. When an asylum applicant's asylum application is examined as to substance, the asylum applicant's questioning shall be carried out in the absence of his family members. If the asylum applicant so desires, during his questioning his right to legal assistance guaranteed by the state and the right to interpreter's services shall be ensured. A minor asylum applicant must be questioned in the presence of his lawful representative or temporary guardian (curator) and his right to legal assistance guaranteed by the state must be safeguarded.

2. An asylum applicant shall be notified of all decisions taken in respect of him in the language known to him and shall be provided with copies thereof.

Article 83. Admissibility of Means of Proof

1. Where it is established when examining an asylum applicant's application that, despite the applicant's honest efforts, the information relevant to the determination of his status cannot be supported by written proof, the information shall be assessed in favour of the asylum applicant and the asylum application shall be considered as well-founded provided that the asylum applicant's explanations are consistent and non-contradictory in essence and are not contrary to universally known facts.

2. Paragraph 1 of this Article shall not be applied and the information that cannot be confirmed by written proof shall be rejected if in the course of examination of asylum applicant's application the asylum applicant misleads the investigation, delays it by his acts or failure to act, tries to cheat or if contradictions are established between facts indicated by the asylum applicant that have a decisive effect when granting the asylum.

Article 84. Suspending and Resuming Examination of Asylum Application

1. The examination of an asylum applicant's asylum application shall be suspended if the asylum applicant leaves the Foreigners' Registration Centre or Refugee Reception Centre without an authorisation or fails to return to the Centres for more than 24 hours.

2. The examination of an asylum application of the asylum applicant who has been permitted to reside in the location of his choice shall be suspended if there is no possibility to contact him for 72 hours.

3. The examination of the asylum application shall be resumed if the alien indicated in paragraph 1 of this Article has returned to the Foreigners' Registration Centre or the Refugee Reception Centre or a possibility of contacting the asylum applicant indicated in paragraph 2 of this Article has emerged and a month has not elapsed from the decision to suspend the examination of the asylum application.

4. If the examination of an asylum applicant's asylum application is suspended on the grounds specified in paragraph 1 or 2 of this Article, the asylum applicant shall without delay but not later than within 24 hours from the resumption of examination of the asylum application submit a detailed description of the motives of his acts or failure to act.

5. The Foreigners' Registration Centre or the Refugee Reception Centre or the territorial police agency shall investigate the asylum applicant's acts or failure to act and the validity of the circumstances specified in his written explanation concerning the emergence of the consequences indicated in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, where such has been received, and, having established that by his acts or failure to act the asylum applicant delays the examination of the asylum application, shall submit a conclusion to the Migration Department suggesting to recognise the asylum applicant's asylum application as manifestly invalid.

6. The decision to suspend or to resume the examination of the asylum applicant's asylum application shall be taken by the Migration Department.

7. Suspension of examination of an asylum application shall entail suspension of provision of services and assistance for the asylum applicant in implementing the rights indicated in paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 71 of this Law. Provision of services and assistance shall be resumed after the disappearance of circumstances on the grounds of which it was suspended.

8. The decisions to suspend and to resume the provision of services and assistance to the asylum applicant in implementing the rights indicated in paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 71 of this Law shall be taken according to the procedure established by the Minister of Social Security and Labour.

Article 85. Termination of Examination of Asylum Application

1. The examination of an asylum applicant's application for asylum shall be terminated if:
 - 1) the asylum applicant makes a written request to terminate the examination of the application;
 - 2) a month has lapsed from the day of making of the decision to suspend the examination of the asylum applicant's application for asylum;
 - 3) the asylum applicant dies, except in cases where he has lodged an asylum application on behalf of his minor family members.
2. The decision to terminate the examination of an asylum application shall be taken by the Migration Department.
3. If the examination of the asylum applicant's application for asylum was terminated on the grounds specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, a new repeat application for granting asylum in the Republic of Lithuania may be examined provided that new circumstances are indicated in the newly lodged asylum application.

Article 86. Granting Refugee Status

1. Refugee status shall be granted to the asylum applicant who, owing to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion, is outside the country of his nationality and is unable or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that country or who, not having a nationality and being outside the country of his former habitual residence as a result of such events, is unable or, owing to such fear, is unwilling to return to it, unless there are conditions specified in Article 88 of this Article.
2. The decision on the granting or refusing to grant refugee status shall be taken by the Migration Department.

Article 87. Granting Subsidiary Protection

1. Subsidiary protection may be granted to an asylum applicant who is outside his country of origin and is unable to return to it owing to a well-founded fear that:
 - 1) he will be tortured, subjected to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment;
 - 2) there is a threat that his human rights and fundamental freedoms will be violated;
 - 3) his life, health, safety or freedom is under threat as a result of endemic violence which spread in an armed conflict or which has placed him at serious risk of systematic violation of his human rights.
2. The decision on granting or refusing subsidiary protection to the asylum applicant shall be taken by the Migration Department.

Article 88. Grounds for Refusing to Grant the Refugee Status or Subsidiary Protection

- The asylum applicant who meets the criteria set in Articles 86 and 87 of this Law shall not be granted refugee status or subsidiary protection if:
- 1) the alien is receiving from organs or agencies of the United Nations (other than the Office of the UNHCR) protection or assistance;
 - 2) the alien is recognised by the competent authorities in which he has taken up residence as having the rights and obligations which are attached to the possession of the nationality of that country;
 - 3) there are serious grounds to believe that the alien has committed a serious non-political crime prior to his arrival in the Republic of Lithuania or has been accused of commission of acts contrary to the purpose and principles of the United States;
 - 4) there are serious grounds for believing that the alien has committed a war crime or crime against humanity or committed genocide within the meaning defined in the laws of the Republic of Lithuania, international treaties and other sources of international law.

Article 89. Issue of Documents to Aliens who have been Granted Asylum in the Republic of Lithuania

1. An alien who has been granted refugee status in the Republic of Lithuania shall be issued a permanent residence permit in the Republic of Lithuania by the decisions of the Migration Department.

2. An alien who has been granted subsidiary protection in the Republic of Lithuania shall be issued a temporary residence permit by the decision of the Migration Department.

3. For departure to a foreign country from the Republic of Lithuania an alien who is in permanent residence in the Republic of Lithuania shall be issued refugee's travelling documents in the manner prescribed by the Minister of the Interior.

Article 90. Withdrawal of Refugee Status and of Subsidiary Protection in the Republic of Lithuania

1. Refugee status granted to an alien in the Republic of Lithuania shall be withdrawn if the alien:

- 1) has voluntarily re-availed himself of the protection of the country of his nationality;
- 2) has voluntarily re-acquired his lost nationality;
- 3) has acquired a new nationality and enjoys the protection of the country of his new nationality;
- 4) has voluntarily re-established himself in the country which he left or outside which he remained owing to fear of persecution;
- 5) can no longer continue to refuse to avail himself of the protection of the country of his nationality because the circumstances in connection with which he has been recognised as a refugee in the Republic of Lithuania have ceased to exist;
- 6) being a stateless person he can return to the country of his former habitual residence because the circumstances in connection with which he has been recognised as a refugee in the Republic of Lithuania have ceased to exist;
- 7) acquired refugee status in the Republic of Lithuania by fraud, except where the information he submitted about himself did not have a decisive effect on the decision to grant him refugee status in the Republic of Lithuania.

2. Subsidiary protection granted to an alien shall be withdrawn if the alien:

- 1) can return to his country of origin because the circumstances in connection with which he has been granted subsidiary protection in the Republic of Lithuania have ceased to exist;
- 2) departs to settle for residence in a foreign country;
- 3) obtained the subsidiary protection status in the Republic of Lithuania by means of fraud , except where the information he submitted about himself did not have a decisive effect on taking the decision to grant him asylum;
- 4) if the alien's stay in the Republic of Lithuania constitutes a threat to public security or public policy.

3. The decision to withdraw the refugee status or subsidiary protection in the Republic of Lithuania shall be taken by the Migration Department.

Article 91. Cooperation with International Organisations

1. When addressing the problems of asylum applicants and aliens granted asylum, state institutions and agencies shall cooperate with the Office of the UNHCR, provide conditions for the Office to fulfil the duties of supervising the application in the Republic of Lithuania of 1951 Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees and 1967 Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees, furnish it with the necessary information and statistical data on asylum applicants and aliens who have been granted asylum, on the implementation of the Convention and the Protocol and the regulations on asylum which are in effect or about to become effective.

2. Representatives of the Office of the UNHCR shall be allowed to immediately contact the asylum applicants. The Office of the UNHCR shall be entitled to receive information connected with the asylum applications.

3. Representatives of the Office of the UNHCR shall be granted access to places of detention and transit zones of airports and sea ports where asylum applicants are kept.

4. In the course of examination of an asylum application representatives of the Office of the UNHCR may submit their opinion on a certain asylum application to the competent institutions and agencies as well as courts of the Republic of Lithuania.

SECTION FOUR GRANTING TEMPORARY PROTECTION IN THE REPUBLIC OF LITHUANIA

Article 92. Taking a Decision on the Giving of Temporary Protection to Aliens in the Republic of Lithuania

1. Where the EU Council takes a decision that there is a mass influx of aliens into the European Union, the Government of the Republic of Lithuania, on the recommendation of the Minister of the Interior, shall take a decision on granting of temporary protection to aliens.

2. If the Government of the Republic of Lithuania takes a decision on granting temporary protection, the aliens shall be allowed to enter into the Republic of Lithuania and shall be provided with accommodation within an area assigned to them by the Government of the Republic of Lithuania without restricting their freedom of movement.

3. Temporary protection shall be granted for a one-year period. The period of temporary protection may be extended but for no longer than one year.

4. Where an alien is entitled to be granted temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania, but there are serious grounds to believe that there are reasons for refusing temporary protection, the Migration Department shall conduct an investigation in connection with the determination of the reasons.

Article 93. Reasons for Excluding Persons from Temporary Protection in the Republic of Lithuania

1. An alien shall be excluded from temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania if:

1) there are serious grounds for considering that the alien has committed a crime against peace or a war crime, or performed genocide, as defined in the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania, International treaties and other instruments of international law;

2) there are serious reasons to believe that the alien has committed a serious non-political crime outside the Republic of Lithuania prior to his admission into the Republic of Lithuania as a person enjoying temporary protection;

3) there are serious reasons to believe that the alien has been guilty of acts contrary to the purposes and principles of the United Nations;

4) there are reasonable grounds for regarding the alien as a danger to public security or public policy of the Republic of Lithuania;

5) the alien has been convicted of a serious or particularly serious crime.

2. The decision to exclude an alien from temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania shall be taken by the Migration Department. The alien shall be refused entry into the Republic of Lithuania or, in case he already is within the territory of the Republic of Lithuania, shall be expelled from the Republic of Lithuania.

Article 94. Rights and Duties of Aliens Granted Temporary Protection in the Republic of Lithuania

1. Aliens granted temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania shall have the following rights during the temporary protection period:

- 1) to lodge an application for asylum in the Republic of Lithuania in the manner prescribed by this Law;
- 2) to have access to free accommodation in the place designated by the Government of the Republic of Lithuania;
- 3) to be provided with all the necessary information regarding their legal status in the Republic of Lithuania in their native language or in a language which they understand;
- 4) to be employed in the Republic of Lithuania during the period of temporary protection;
- 5) to receive a monetary allowance if they have no other income in the Republic of Lithuania;
- 6) to receive emergency care and necessary assistance in terms of social care;

2. Minors enjoying temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania shall be entitled to study at schools of general education and vocational schools according to the procedure specified by the Minister of Education and Science.

3. The right referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article may also be implemented after the end of the period of temporary protection.

4. Family members of an alien who has been granted temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania shall be entitled to temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania. The right shall be implemented only if it is established that the family members were separated because of the events due to which the alien was granted temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania.

5. Having been granted temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania, aliens shall have the following duties:

- 1) to comply with the requirements of the Constitution, laws and other legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania;
- 2) to allow the performance of health screening;
- 3) to produce all the available documents and submit authentic information documents pertaining to the alien's person;
- 4) to declare to the Foreigners' Registration Centre, Refugee Reception Centre or territorial police agency in writing in free format the resources and assets owned in the Republic of Lithuania within three days from the granting of temporary territorial asylum and the resources received pending the examination of the application for asylum in the Republic of Lithuania within one day from the receipt thereof.

6. State funds of the Republic of Lithuania shall be allocated for implementing the rights of the asylum applicants specified in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article; resources of international organisations, EU structural funds, resources of humanitarian assistance funds established by natural and legal persons of the Republic of Lithuania may also be used to the extent the asylum applicant is unable to guarantee them by the resources and property subject to declaration.

7. If it transpires that the asylum applicant had sufficient means for implementing the rights established in paragraph 1 of this Article at the time when these basic needs were being covered for him, he must refund the related expenses of the state.

Article 95. Issue of Personal Documents to Aliens who have been Granted Temporary Protection in the Republic of Lithuania

1. The Migration Department shall issue aliens who have been granted temporary protection in the Republic of Lithuania temporary residence permits which shall be valid for the entire duration of the protection.

2. The aliens who have been granted temporary protection but are still in a foreign country shall be provided by the Migration Department with travel documents to enable them to enter the Republic of Lithuania.

Article 96. Withdrawal of Temporary Protection in the Republic of Lithuania

1. Temporary protection granted to an alien the Republic of Lithuania shall be withdrawn if:
 - 1) the alien can return to his country of origin;
 - 2) the alien departs to a foreign country for residence;
 - 3) the reasons specified in paragraph 1 of Article 93 of this Law are disclosed.
2. The decision concerning the withdrawal of temporary protection for an alien in the Republic of Lithuania shall be taken by the Migration Department.

CHAPTER V
