Welcome to the first issue of NEMIS: a newsletter designed for judges who need to keep up to date on EU developments in immigration and borders law. NEMIS covers: (a) relevant legislation proposed and adopted at the EU level and (b) relevant judgements of the CJEU, the ECHR and decisions at the national level of Member States.

NEMIS does not cover asylum, refugee or international protection issues: it solely concentrates on immigration and borders law. The newsletter is divided in six chapters covering: (1) Legal Migration, (2) Borders and visas, (3) Irregular Migration, (4) External Treaties (5) Institutional measures and Miscellaneous. This newsletter is available only to judges and not knowingly circulated among advocates or state officials.

An important aspect of NEMIS is the intention to inform judges in Member States what problems and proposed solutions other judges are contending with. We therefore would like to invite you to submit relevant decisions. In fact, for national court decisions this newsletter relies heavily on judges at the national level. We do not intend to produce a complete translation of national non-English decisions. However, we would very much appreciate a summary in English of these national decisions outlining (a) what the case decided and (b) its EU relevance. (If you wish, we can provide assistance in tidying up the English.)

We intend to publish on a quarterly basis and do invite you to join us in providing your colleagues with relevant material on immigration and borders law. You may do so by registering for this Newsletter sending an email to Tineke Strik at the Centre for Migration Law: t.strik@jur.ru.nl.

We hope that NEMIS will keep you up to date. Likewise, we hope that you will utilize us to keep you colleagues informed and updated.
